Greenville, SC – August 3, 2011 - Super Duper Publications' Jeepers Peepers Ask & Answer Game has received the 2011 Mom's Choice Award.

The Mom's Choice Awards establish the benchmark of excellence in family-friendly media, products, and services. Each year an esteemed panel of educators, media professionals, performing artists, producers, medical and business professionals, authors, scientists, librarians, parents, and children evaluate the latest educational materials <http://www.momschoiceawards.com/learn.php>. The MCA judges score each product submission on production quality, design, educational value, entertainment value, originality, appeal, and cost.

Jeepers Peepers is the hilarious "What Am I?" game from Super Duper. The key element of fun in Jeepers Peepers is that, without looking, a student places a photo card of an object or animal into a slot on a pair of goofy, round, oversized glasses. Wearing these glasses, the student faces his/her classmates and, by asking a series of questions, tries to figure out what item is on the card. Every student takes as many turns as time will allow. After naming the items on the cards, players spin an electronic spinner and earn tokens. The player with the most tokens at the end of the game wins. <http://www.superduperinc.com/products/view.aspx?pid=JP350> .

Rita B., an educator from Brighton, Michigan, exclaimed, "The kids beg to play Jeepers Peepers. The game is a great follow-up to our work on expanding expression. Of course, they're fascinated by the electronic spinner, and they can't wait until it's my turn to put on the peepers!"

Kelly H., a speech-language pathologist from Bowling Green, Kentucky, also said, "I LOVE LOVE LOVE this game and my students do too.... You can do so many things... The possibilities are endless. It's a MUST!"
